

Hannah Humphrey Biography

Hannah Humphrey was named Deputy Director of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources, effective Nov. 1, 2021. She oversees the Division of Environmental Quality and the Division of Energy.

Hannah began her career with the department 20 years ago as a seasonal naturalist at Mark Twain State Park. Most recently, she served as the Director of the Water Protection Program's Financial Assistance Center, where she was responsible for managing the Clean Water and Drinking Water State Revolving Fund programs. Before working in the Financial Assistance Center, Hannah was the department's Community Services Coordinator, and she also worked in the Hazardous Waste Program as a Project Manager and as a Unit Chief. Hannah earned her Bachelor of Biology from Park University.

