BIOGRAPHY

The majority of Kristen's insurance expertise is focused on the design professional industry offering both professional liability and property and casualty solutions for firms throughout the Midwest. As an independent insurance agent with partnerships with a multitude of insurance companies, she offers an expanded spectrum of insurance products including professional liability, Property & Casualty, client or job specific, bonds, pollution liability, cyber liability and much more. Kristen is a member of A/E Pronet, an international network of insurance agents, specializing in both education and insurance solutions for the design professional industry. Kristen is a member and facilitator of continuing education seminars for professional associations specific to design professionals such as ACEC, ASCE, AIA and INASLA and offers the same service for her clients. She is an advocate for ACEC and AIA and has served on various committees within those associations and assists the associations in legislative reform. Kristen has also been elected to serve as an associate member to the ACEC Indiana Board. Kristen has earned her Certified Insurance Counselor designation. Kristen began her insurance career over 20 years ago working with international clients and settling high exposure workers compensation claims. She continues to use her negotiation skills by working with her clients to settle on insurable contract clauses. Although a native of St. Louis Missouri and a Cardinals Fan, Kristen graduated from Indiana University-Bloomington on a Soccer scholarship with a double major in Criminal Justice and Psychology and minor in Sociology.
