Quotes from Firms & Attendees:

"I learned valuable information about the business of engineering by attending the FLA Program. It was a great way to hear real stories and learn useful information from experts in their respective fields. They really did a great job with the program. I would recommend this program to future leaders."

"Great program! Worth the investment and return."

"Found the FLA program to be a very efficient way to expose our staff to a well rounded set of topics that they will need for their advancement in their careers. We've sent people every year, and are planning on doing so again this year."

ACEC Missouri Future Leaders Academy

4 Two-Day Sessions, 33.5 Hours of Learning
Designed to Prepare Your Firm's Future Leaders,
Principals, and Owners

ACEC/MO's Future Leaders Academy is targeted to all rising industry professionals who are committed to developing their leadership and management skills and abilities, and identified by your firm as a "future leader" of your business. This may include design firm new principals, middle managers, business and administrative coordinators, marketing managers, HR managers, project managers...anyone interested in developing solid management skills.

The program was created to provide professional and personal leadership development for Missouri's most promising professionals in the design community. The program launches up-and-coming professionals on a development track leading to successful general management, project management, and principal positions within design firms. This program imparts specific skills and competencies identified as critical for leadership success. These highly interactive sessions are taught by experts in the field of business administration and people management in professional services firms.

SPACE IS LIMITED TO THE FIRST 20 REGISTRANTS. No exceptions.

Each individual makes a commitment of time to attend ALL sessions regardless of work conflicts.

Please read the following information carefully.
